The people of Kentucky will long remem ber how the gallaut Anderson, in their time of peril, came as a true son to their assist ance, and notwithstanding his enfeebled condition, succeeded in placing Kentucky in a position of defence in so short a space of time. If we must lose him now, let us more than any hero of the war, and if the location. veteran needs a temporary repose to recruit, let us yield to the necessities of his health, in the hope that breathing his native air and in repose, he will soon so far recover as to again give us his invaluable for his treason. It is interesting to see what effect the war will have upon the importations to our country, and the amount of specie we may expect. The importation of merchandise, ending with this year, it is estimated, will be $175,000,000, or about two-thirds of what it was last year. The consequence of this is the value of the decrease ia imports will be due to us in specie, amounting to, perhaps, $500,000. The exports last year were, in specie, $56,000,000 over the importe, which was necessary to cancel the balance against us. The difference, then, in our favor, in a single year, will be $106,-000. This year we may be said to have, dispensed with the purchase of goods, valued, perhaps, at $150,000,000, and conequently are that much richer for it. True, we will have less luxuries, and will have to depend more upon the sources of our own supersbundant country, but that we can well do-indeed, better than any country on the globe. The effect will be to give the spur to domestic enterprise, and render us, after the war is over, and we are again happily reunited, the most powerful and self-dependent nation upon the globe. CULTURE OF COTTON IN CUBA -W& find in the last files of the Havana papers that the cultivation of cotton has begun to occupy considerably the attention of landowners throughout the island. Old worn out coffee fields, which have been used as mere cattle inolosures, are eagerly sought after by speculators, for the purpose of convert. ing them into cotton plantations, and prices of those so called waste lands have suddenly r sen to a very high figure. There are already three cotton plantations in the immediate neighborhood of Havans, and the mania for the enterprise appears to be quite considerable in that city.

He insisted that there "must be an equitable division. or he would blew them all to h-l," and planted his batteries for a fight. Price immediately succumbed.

The rebel troops under Pillow are report ed by the St. Louis Republican to have entirely left Kentucky, and recrossed into Missouri, with the view of attacking Cape Gi-ardeau. It is supposed that when he hears Price is retreating, he may attempt to recross to Kentucky, and possibly find himself in a trap. There are but very few Arkansas troops now in Missouri. They only volunteered for three months, and have, most of them, gone home.

The accident on the O. & M. R. R., or Sunday night, by which two lives were lost, occurred in this wise: Some days ago the old bridge over Logan Creek, near Cochran, about thirty miles from Cincinnati, was believed to be in secure; trestlework had been erected till the new bridge was completed. Logan Creek was considerably swollen by the heavy rains of Saturday, and dashed furiously along, no doubt uasettling the foundations. As the freight train, from St. Louis, came along, the watchman examined the crossing as well as he could by night, and the train passed on. The trestle-work swayed and fell,

News from the South

Mr. Haley, who recently escaped from Charleston, has given some interesting items of news to the Washington Republican, among which we find the following:

MUTINY AT FORT SUMPTER-A SOLDIER HORRIBLY WHIPPED -Among the soldiers now at Fort Sumpter, is James. The Richmond (Va) Examiner, of September 24th, has the following tremendous story from Kentucky:

THE VICTORY IN KENTUCKY .- The affair at Barboursville, Kentucky (not Mul-drough's hill, as improperly reported on yesterday), was quite a brilliant victory to the gallant Tennesseeans. We have been kindly shown the dispatch received here by highly esteemed elergyman, and to which allusion was made in yesterday's dispatch. It states that the Confederate forces, numtering eight hundred, under the command of Gen. Zollicoffer, had attacked eighteen hundred Federal troops, at Barboursville, in Eastern Kentucky, about forty miles from the Tennessee, and thirty miles from the Virginia lines, and completely routed them, taking four hundred stand of arms and equipments. The loss of the Confederates was only two men killed. The loss of the enemy was not reported.

THE RICHMOND VIRGINIA MARKETS .- The quotations of the markets in the Southern cities illustrate how precious a luxury secession is to the people:

At Richmond, on the 23d ultimo, hog round was quoted at 22@245 per lb., hams 30@34c. coffee at 40c. per lb., sole leather at 55@60c. per lb., New Orleans molasses at 653, lard 20c per lb., in barrels, New 82s per gallon, salt $7.

The prices of sugar and molasses are surprising, since they are of Southern produc-tion. Cotton also is high, being rated at 14c.

Owing to some alleged differences which have arisen, upon points of military etiquette, between General Anderson and General Mitchell, it appears that General McCook, of Ohio, has recently laid before the President and Cabinet a statement of the case, and a request that a new commander be appointed to the Department of Kentucky. General Anderson is said to be in very bad health, and the proposition of General McCook received the approbation of both General Anderson and General Mitchell. The result has been the appointment of Gen. McCook to the Department of Kentucky, and it is understood that the Kentuckians in Washington are highly pleased at the arrangement.

OTHER DESERTER-THE HEARTLESSNESS OF BRAUREGARD-TROUBLE BREWING AMONG

> BALTIMORE, MD. Wednesday, Oct. 2, 1861.

Another deserter from the rebel army under Beauregard, at Manassau reach this city last evening, in the steamer Kent, running between this port and West River, on the eastern shore. From the moments' on the eastern shore. From the moments' conversation had with him, I learned that he belonged to one of the Louisiana regiments, and deserted from sheer disgust at the treatment and utter lack of comfort experienced in the camp. He says provisions are extremely source—meat being given out but once a week, and then in meagre quantities Bread is little more plenty, but their chief dependence has been watermelons and green corn, of which they have had abundance. No visible preparation is being made to place their army in more comfortable quarrers than the insect caten tents they now occupy.

He was in the battle at Bull Run, and says his regiment was in full retreat, as well as others, when the panic broke out in money for them. To carry it out, one of our army, and that they, at the time unconscious of the fact of the national retreat. named Mary Condallis, was deputed to col-lect it, and, in a short time, Mary returned with $450, which the "pious ladies," who says the sight of the stars and stripes on did not halt until several miles were placed with $450, which the "pious ladies," who says the sight of the stars and stripes on meet daily at the rooms of the Young Men's the battle field filled many a boid soldier's Christian Association, received and put into eyes with tears, and had it not been for their funds. almost daily read to them from their leading General, and the curses heaped upon them as they entered the conflict, whole companies would instinctively have thrown down their arms, and rushed for shelter once more beneath its folds.

One young man from Baltimore, in one of the Maryland regiments, as the Union flag burst into view, threw down his musket, declaring he could not fire upon the emblem of that nationality which had afforded him so much liberty and happiness. Beauregard hearing of the circumstance ordered him to be shot, which order my informant saw carried into execution the following morning.

Another instance of the heartlessness of Becuregard was mentioned, wherea wealthy, respected, and intelligent farmer sought an interview with that General and endeavored, by representing the misery and bankruptcy which must befal the South in the prosecution of the war, to interest him to recommending some peaceful overtures to their Government The General indignantly ordered him under arrest, and the following day he was shot, his family turned from their home, and his property seized and confected to the Southern Confederacy.

The Louisianian is strongly impressed that a rebellion is imminent among several of the Southern and both of the Maryland Regiments, in consquence of the gross misrepresentations by which they were induced to enlist, and the total disregard of their comforts and indifference to their wants. This disaffection, he says, is not blinded to the eyes of their leaders. and Beauregard, in particular, is often encountered in their night watches, with folded arms, and wan and hollow cheeks sunken eyes, silently walking to and fro before his quarters, in an abstraction of portentious meaning. He wears not that cheerful kindling glance that he did pre-vious to the battle of Bull Run, and daily, telligent, says we need to expect no more fighting from the Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana boys like that at Bull Run. have reflected much for themselves eince that bloody fight, and were it left to the soldiers of the Southern army, to-day, to declare for Union or secession, three-fourths would huzza for the stars and stripes.

General Order-No. 5.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE CUMBERLAND,

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7, 1861. The Commanding General learns with some parts of the State upon the slightest and demoralized. and most trivial grounds.

He desires the civil authorities and orders the military not to make any arrests except when the parties are attempting to join the rebels or are engaged in giving aid or information to them; and in all cases the evidence must be such as will convict them before a court of justice. In many cases it is understood that the Home Guards have gone into the adjoining counties and arrested and carried off parties who have been quietly remaining at home under the expectation that they would not be interfered with, provided they did nothing in violation of the spirit of the proclamation of September 24th, issued from these head. quarters.

Some instances are mentioned of persons having been arrested and taken out of the State; "this is all contrary to what the Commanding General has declared to be his wish, and he trusts it will not be repeated.

It is believed that many of those who at one time sympathized with the rebellion are desirous of returning to their allegiance, and wish to remain quietly at home attending to their business.

A conciliatory fair course pursued towards such persons will win them to our cause; the reverse may force them into the ranks of our enemies.

The Commanding General entreats and urges his fellow-citizens to discountenance and endeavor to put a stop to these ill-timed and unlawful arrests, and to aid him in keeping peace among ourselves. By command of

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 8, 1861. The following telegraphic order was received yesterday at these headquarters: Brigadier-General Anderson:

To give you rest necessary to restoration of health, call Brigadier General Sherman mand the Department of the Cumber land. Turn over to him your instructions, and report here in person as soon as you may without retarding your recovery. (Signed) WINFIELD SCOTT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6, 1861. In obedience to the above order, I hereby relinquish the command of this Department to Brig. Gen. Sherman. Regretting deeply the necessity which renders this step proper, I do it with less reluctance because my successor, Brig. Gen. Sherman, is the man I had selected for that purpose. God grant that he may be the means of delivering this Department from the marauding bands, who, under the guise of relieving and befriending Kentucky, are doing all the injury they can to those who will not join morning. Success go with them.

THE BEST AND MOST USEFUL GYMNASTIC exercises, and an education for the whole life—eart of Fencing. Fencing is the art of using weapons liffully, both for attack and defense, and is the most istificily, both for attack and defense, and is the most conductive of a tygmunstic exections to the acquirement of a quick eye a skillful band, and an active, ath etic ody. In teaching the art of Feucing to Juveniles, I have adopted the well known system of Calisthenics of he celebrated Professor Linge. By this system youths will acquire a noble carriage, an ease, untural step, genteet manners, and without danger of accident, as it is taught without the aid of aparatus.

TELEGRAPHIC.

CAIRO, ILL., Oct. 8 -A deserter from Pil. lows's army, formerly a resident of Northern Illinois, arrived here last night. He reports General A. S. Johnson in command at Columbus with 40,000 men. They have fortified the bank of the river for four miles above Columbus, and are expecting an at-tack from the Federals. Generals Cheatham, Pillow, Polk, and Johnson are all at Columbus. The army at that point is well armed and equipped, and have large bodies of cavalry.

On the 29th of Sept. Jeff. Thompson had 4,000 men near Belmont, his army being fast deciminated by desertion.

The gunboat New Era arrived from St. Louis iast night.

FORT MORROE, Oct. 7 .- The steamer Express met by agreement, this morning, the rebel steamer Northumberland, with a flag of truce, 12 miles above Newport News, which brought down 57 wounded prisoners, who were released yesterday at Richmond. They had been captured at Bull Run. They report that there are about 5,000 troops in Richmond; that the rebel army on the Potomao is supposed to number over over the mountains in Western Virginia, or 150,000 men, and that apprehensions of an retired back upon the mountains, as it has attack on the seaboard causes the greatest not been seen for several days past. Every attack on the seaboard causes the greatest anxiety.

Powerful batteries have been erected along James river in anticipation of an advance of the Federal army in that direc-tion. The armament has been removed from the steamer Jamestown. The prisoners did not see the Yorktown. The troops blockade. at Richmond were composed of North Carolinians and Georgians. Gov. Brown, of Georgia, has recalled five regiments to defend the State. The rebel troops were suffering greatly from the want of medicine and clothing and certain kinds of food. Articles cut off by the blockade were bringing fabulous prices. The wounded prisoners were released from the reason that their wants could not be supplied. They were obliged to sleep on the floor during their imprisonment. Gen. Beauregard was at at this point, with eight feet water by the Manassas and Jeff. Davis returned to Richmark in the canal. mond, on Saturday, in feeble health. Speculations were rife as to his successor. Seventeen of the released prisoners, who are mable to go home, have been sent to the O.d Point hospital.

WASHINGTON, Ost. 8 .- Special to the N. Y Post.—Brig. Gen. Graban has been ordered to appear pefore Judge Merrick to day for contempt of court. It is alleged that he forced a soldier into the ranks after he had been discharged by the court. A private of one of the Pennsylvania regiments was killed by the accidental discharge of a musket this morning.

The cavalry and artillery regiments are marching to Capitol Hill, where they will be relieved to day. Every thing is quiet along the lines. The powerful rain last night made havoc in some of the camps.

Washington, Oct. 8 — The commissioner of Indian affairs, Mr. Dale, has returned from his official visit to the Indian tribes in Kansas and Nebraska. He was received by them with gladness. They sought every opportunity to express to him their friendliness to the United States. He conversed increased shipments to this port. with the returned Kansas officers who took part in the battle of Springfield, and who informed him that no separately organized Indian forces were with the rebels on that occasion, but that a comparatively few of the half breeds only were in the ranks of the enemy. The efforts of the rebels to array the Indians against the United States, so far as the commissioner could learn, was attended with only partial success. The attended with only partial success. The Indians, as a class, are disposed to be friendly, but those who are in hostility have been operced to this course by the rebels. No doubt is entertained that it would require no persuasion to raise a large Indian force in Kansas and Nebraska to operate against those who may be brought into the field by the rebels.

FARTHER POIST, Oct. 8 -Further by the steamer Norwegian .- Great Britain .- Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, in speaking at a dinner at Hertfordshire, reviewed the general aspect of foreign and domestic relations. Italy, he said, had become a great nation. He took Mr. Roebucks' view of Austria, and complimented Earl Russell on his conduct of the foreign department. Sir Edward said he had long foreseen the rupture in America, and he thought it would tend to happy results, both for the safety of Europe and other ressons. The breaking up of the American Republic was not a failure of the Democracy. Any other form of government would have equally failed in keeping together sections of a community geographioally so vast and with contrasts so antagonistic to each other. The issue of notices for the adoption of short time in the Lancashire mills was daily becoming more general, and under these oircumstances spinners and manufacturers were showing increased confidence to abstain from pressing their goods on the market until prices shall have attained a point in some degree commensurate with the rise in the value of the raw material. The Times, in its city article, attributes the continued decline in the funds to feelings of disquiet as to the prospects of the perative classes in Manchester during the coming winter, and the influence which a partial suspension of the cotton trade may have upon the revenue. The following is a summary of the news sent out by the City of Washington, from Liverpool on the 25th:

Great Britain .- The Great Eastern was less damaged than was at first represented. She will repair at Milford and resume the service between Liverpool and New York.

The Times thinks the Emperor of Russia's acceptable to America than advice from any other power; but obviously the advice will not be taken by a proud and obstinate people, and more blood must flow before the councils of St. Petersburg will be listened to. Further correspondence from Russia is published In one letter he says he has no doubt whatever of the ultimate power of the Northern and Western States to subjugate the seceded States if they put forth all their strength.

The London Post publishes the terms of a treaty hatward and the strength to the results of the strength to the strength a treaty between England, France, and Spain for immediate intervention in the affairs of Mexico. There is no intention of urging territorial war but the combined national force of the powers will occupy the principal ports in the Gulf, and will sequestrate the revenue of such ports, retaining one-half and paying the rest to Mexico.

Yet, if Mexico sets the allied powers at defiance an effectual blockade will be instantly established.

France -The Constitutionelle officially announces the Washington Government has not authorized its agents in Europe to make military engagements, and that officers ac-cepting service under that Government will therefore act under that Government will therefore act under their own responsibility.

Italy — Active negotiations are going on between Paris and Turin in relation to the determined the state of the Latest via Londonderry .- London, Sept 27 The Times announces that the illness of the Pope's Nuncio is more serious than any heretofore. Advices say that there is much danger of his life.

New York, Oct. 8 -The frigate Wabash arrived from Charleston bar on the evening of the 3d. She received five or six shots below the water line during the action at Hatteras Inlet. She comes here to have some repairs to her hull and machinery. She will sail again in a week or ten days.

The Roanoke, Wandalia and the flag ship were off Charleston.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8 .- The excitement in the stock market is at fever heat this afternoon, and a further rise of 1@2 per cent. has been established. There is a strong demand for all the securities of the list, and the buoyancy is greater than that preceding the battle of Bull Run. No second board was held, and no reliable quotations can be given.
